John U. Smyth, the well known insurance man, with offices at 718 West Madison street, is one of the rising young men of Chicago. He is popular, able and energetic and is a booster for everything that makes for the betterment of this, his native city.

Calvin F. Craig, the able president of the Mechanics & Traders State Bank, deserves great credit for the well deserved popularity of that big West Side institution.

Sheriff Charles W. Peters is making a good record.

Judge John Stolk of the Municipal Court is one of the most popular jurists on the bench. He is fearless, able and honest.

Mayor Thompson was the father of municipal playgrounds. He introduced and secured the passage of the first ordinance creating one while he was an alderman.

Adam Wolf, the popular county assessor, is an ideal public official.

President Reinberg of the county board is making a good record.

Owen O'Malley, popular former county commissioner and leading cigar dealer at 137 North Clark street, is making a good record as commissioner of the Forest Preserve.

Louis J. Behan, the well known lawyer and popular master in chancery, is frequently mentioned for a place on the Superior Bench. Every one who knows him believes that he would make a fine judge.

William C. Niehoff would make a good County Commissioner. No man is better posted on public affairs.

John McGillen's big army of friends and admirers are a unit in their desire to see him represent the North Side in the Democratic National Convention.

Francis S. Penbody for United States senator is the winning battle cry for 1920.

Joseph F. Haas has always made a good public record. He is a man of the people.

John U. Smyth, the well known real estate and insurance man, is always a booster for the west side.

George W. Krug of the New Southern Hotel of Chicago, is one of the most popular hotel men in the United States. His guests would make him president if they could. Speaking of the presidency, the New Southern at Michigan avenue and 13th street is being put in great shape for the reception of delegates and visitors to the Republican National Convention, and also for the Elks National Convention.

John W. Eckhart, the well known miller, is respected as a democratic leader as well as a recognized power in commercial life.

Carl Appel, the owner of the justly famous North Side Turner Hall, and restaurant, is a wide awake citizen, of whom Chicago is proud.

William H. Wesbey always made a good public record.
